The Classical Course, for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, occupies four years, its classes being known as Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior. The Philosophical Course, for the Degree of Bachelor of Philosophy, omitting the Greek and much of the Latin of the Classical Course, requires three years, its classes being entitled First, Second, and Third Philosophical. The Advanced Course, for the Degree of Master of Arts, embraces six schools, the exercises of which may be all attended in a single year, the degree being given to graduates in the Classical Course, and students of equivalent attainments, who pass satisfactory examinations in the several schools. A Select Course, embracing studies in different classes, may be taken by young men of adequate maturity.

Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, in order to obtain admission to the Freshman Class, must, unless they have passed through the regular course in the Preparatory Department, sustain an examination in the following studies:

English Grammar; Modern Geography; Arithmetic; Algebra, through Quadratic Equations; Geometry, first three books; Sophocles' or Kuhner's Greek Grammar; Jacob's or Felton's Greek Reader; Andrews and Stoddart's Latin Grammar; Cæsar's Commentaries, or some equivalent; Cicero's Select Orations, Virgil.

For entrance upon the Course prescribed for the Degree of Bachelor of Philosophy, students are subjected to an examination in the English studies and Mathematics already named; in the Latin of the third year of the Preparatory Department, or an equivalent; and also in two additional books of Geometry.

Candidates for admission to any class must be examined in all the studies which have been required of the class they propose to enter.

Students who pursue a select Course must undergo the same examination as is required for admission to the Course of Bachelor of Philosophy; and, if they propose to study an Ancient Language, they must also sustain in that Language the examination prescribed for candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

* Required in Philosophical course; elective in Classical.

† Every other week; alternating with Composition.

COLLEGE FACILITIES.

RHETORICAL EXERCISES.

Compositions and Declamations each twice a month are required throughout the whole Course; and during the last year and a half, the pieces spoken are original, and must be presented, before their delivery, to the Professor of Rhetoric for criticism. The advantage of attendance on the debates in Congress makes this department one of great value to the student.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies formed by the students of the College, the Enosian and the Philoprenian, which meet weekly at their halls for the purpose of improvement in Debate and Composition.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library contains about five thousand volumes, and is especially valuable in the department of Theology. The Libraries of the Enosian and Philoprenian Societies contain about three thousand volumes, principally in the departments of History and Literature. The Libraries of Congress, and of the various Departments of Government, are valuable auxiliaries to students.

PRIZES.

The "Davis Prizes for Elocution," provided by the income of a fund contributed by Hon. Isaac Davis, LL. D., of Massachusetts, consist of two gold medals, awarded to the most successful contestants in Declamation.

The "Staughton Prize for the Latin Language and Literature," and the "Elton Prize for the Greek Language and Literature," provided by the income of a fund contributed by Rev. Romeo Elton, D. D., of Exeter, England, consist of two gold medals, awarded to the best scholar and writer in the Greek and Latin Languages.

The "Gale prizes for Physical Sciences," provided by the income of a fund contributed by L. D. Gale, M. D., of Washington, D. C., consist of two gold medals, awarded to the best two scholars in the Physical Sciences.

The "Ruggles Prizes for Mathematics," provided by the income of a fund given by Wm. Ruggles, LL. D., Senior Professor at the College, consist of two gold medals, awarded to the best two scholars in the Pure and Applied Mathematics.

The medals are awarded at the Annual Commencement by a committee of gentlemen appointed by the Faculty. Any member of the third Philosophical, Junior or Senior Classes may be a contestant for the "Davis Prizes;" any member of the Junior or Senior Classes for the "Staughton Prizes," and any member of the third Philosophical or Senior Classes for the "Gale" or "Ruggles Prizes," provided he shall have attained during any one year of his course the grade of nine in the department to which the prize is attached, an average of eight in all the studies of his course, and shall not have fallen below six in any study.

In 1866 the following students were the successful contestants for the Prizes:

The First Ruggles Prize for Mathematics was awarded to Mr. John Kurtz, of D. C., 1st Philosophical, and the second to Mr. H. A. Duncanson, of D. C., 1st Philosophical.

The First Gale Prize for Natural Sciences was awarded to Mr. John Kurtz, of D. C., 1st Philosophical, and the second to Mr. James Nelson, of Va., Senior.

The Elton Prize for Greek was awarded to Mr. A. B. Duval, of D. C., Senior.

The First Davis Prize for Elocution was awarded to Mr. J. H. Gordon, of D. C., Senior, and the second to Mr. W. Wheeler, of N. C., Senior.

LECTURES.

Courses of Lectures in various departments of Science, Art, and Literature can be secured at the College from men of eminence residing temporarily at Washington. The Lectures at the Smithsonian Institution are free to all who choose to attend.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

Prayers, accompanied by the reading of the Scriptures, are offered daily in the College Chapel. All students are required to attend this service, and also some place of worship regularly on the Sabbath, the selection being left to themselves, or with their parents or guardian.

COMMENCEMENT, VACATION AND EXAMINATIONS.

The Annual Commencement is held on the last Wednesday in June. It is succeeded by a vacation extending to the last Wednesday in September. The College year, embracing nine months, is divided into two terms. The first term commences on the last Wednesday in September, and continues to Friday preceding the third Monday in February. The second term commences on the third Monday in February, and ends with Commencement. Public examinations, in all the studies pursued, are held immediately before the close of each term.

Examinations are also required annually, during the College Course, in the common branches of an English Education.

In order to the cleanliness of the rooms, it is required that bedding, three pieces at least per week, be washed at the College laundry, at the charge of 75 cents per dozen.

One half of all bills must be paid at the opening, and the other half at the middle of the session. The previous settlement of bills is requisite to admission to recitations.

FACILITIES TO STUDENTS FOR THE CHRISTIAN MINISTRY.

It has ever been a leading object of the founders and liberal patrons of the College to furnish facilities to students having in view the Christian Ministry; and large numbers of candidates for that office, of various religious denominations, have received the advantages afforded to such students. It would be doing violence to the cherished hopes of those who have given nearly all the funds which the College now possesses should this their design not be sacredly kept in view. Tuition will therefore be gratuitous to those of limited means who shall be recommended by the Faculty as worthy beneficiaries; and in special cases further facilities may be furnished.

GENERAL RULES OF DISCIPLINE.

The discipline of the College is designed for youth who desire to improve their time and are disposed to that order which is essential to this end.

On entering, each student is required to sign a pledge on his honor to obey all the laws of the Institution so long as he shall remain a member of it. After having received a certificate of matriculation from the President he must deposit a sum equal to one-half of all the annual College charges; and no student can be permitted to recite until he shall have satisfactorily arranged for his College bills. No abatement for absence, after admission, is made in the bill for board for less than one month, nor in any other College bill for less than one term, except in case of protracted illness. Every student is required to make choice of his studies immediately upon the commencement of the term, and punctually to attend all the exercises pertaining to his course.

A merit-roll is kept, and each recitation is noted on the grade of from 0 to 10. Demerits are given for absences and for violations of College laws. The average of the merit-roll, including all absences from College exercises and all excuses granted, however reasonable, will be sent half-quarterly to the parents or guardians of the students. When any student has one hundred such marks for any one term, or one hundred and fifty for any one year, he must leave the Institution.

The recitations of the advanced Classes are brought into the early portion of the day; closing generally at one o'clock, P. M., and on Saturday at eleven o'clock, A. M. The advantages of an attendance upon Congress, upon the Lectures at the Smithsonian Institution, etc., are thus secured without detriment to his proficiency in study. Any parent or guardian who desires a special privilege for his son or ward in this respect must signify it in writing to the Faculty.

All students are required to abstain from whatever is inconsistent with a due observance of the Sabbath, and regularly to attend, every Sabbath morning, such particular place of Divine Worship as may be chosen by themselves or by their parents or guardians. On Sabbath night they are expected to attend religious service at the College Chapel when such service shall be appointed. But any student may for sufficient reasons be excused by the President, or by one of the Professors, to attend, either morning or night, other places of worship.

All immorality in word or deed and all ungentlemanly conduct are strictly forbidden. No student is allowed to attend the theatre, or any such place, or to visit any bar-room or similar establishment, or to visit any hotel but for special and adequate reasons. No student is allowed to have at his command any deadly weapon, or gunpowder, any cards or other means of gambling, or any intoxicating liquor.

Any student is entitled to an honorable dismission at any time according to his actual standing, provided his College bills are fully discharged, and provided, if a minor, he has the written sanction of his parent or guardian. Whenever a student can no longer cheerfully comply with College rules he is expected to comply with his pledge, and leave the Institution.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

INSTRUCTION AND DISCIPLINE.

The Preparatory Department occupies a commodious building on the College premises, and is designed to afford pupils a thorough preparation to enter the Classical or Philosophical Department. It is under the immediate supervision of the Faculty, and is subject to the general regulations of the College in regard to discipline. The Principal is aided in the care and instruction of the Department by most of the College Officers and by necessary Assistant Teachers. The School session commences on the second Wednesday of September, and closes on the last Wednesday of June. Monthly reports of the scholarship and deportment of the pupils are sent to parents; and they are requested always to communicate with the President of the College, or the Principal of the School, on receipt of the monthly reports.

No one is admitted as a candidate for graduation to the Senior Class who has not spent one year either at this or some other Law School, or have performed a correspondent amount of study under some approved attorney.

SESSIONS.

The entire Course of Study embraces two years, beginning with the second Wednesday in October and closing the second Wednesday of June following. The exercises of the School are all held after the usual office hours, which close at 3 o'clock, thus giving to students the entire day for study, for reading in the public Libraries, and for attending the several Courts of the Capital, and at the same time enabling young men engaged in office duties to avail themselves of the facilities of the School.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The School is divided into two classes, a Junior and Senior. Daily Recitations, in connection with Text Books, are conducted by the Officers of Instruction, the Teacher giving a prelection or commentary on the appointed lesson, and questioning each pupil both on the text and comment. Students are desired to take notes of Lectures, and are expected to be prepared for examination by the Lecturer. The Course of Recitations embraces the important departments of Common Law and its Commentaries; of Criminal, Commercial, and Admiralty Jurisprudence; of Evidence and Pleading; and Equity Jurisprudence and Pleading. The Lectures relate to special topics, bearing directly on the studies of the Class Room, or treat upon subsidiary branches essential to the comprehensive student.

TEXT BOOKS.

The best in each department will always be chosen. The following list, subject to revision, is at present the preferred selection:

FIRST YEAR OR JUNIOR COURSE.—Blackstone's Commentaries; Williams on Real Property; Williams on Personal Property; Chitty on Contracts; Byles on Bills; Kent's Commentaries.

SECOND YEAR OR SENIOR COURSE.—Stephens on Pleading; Greenleaf on Evidence; Story on the Law of Partnership; Adams' Equity; Mitford's Chancery Pleading; Parsons' Maritime Law.

MOOT COURT.

A Moot Court is held each week, at which Judge Merrick presides. Two Associate Judges are selected each month from the Senior Class. Each case is argued by four members of the School; a Senior and Junior counsel and advocate upon each side being selected from their respective classes. An opportunity is thus furnished to all the students for frequent practice both in the preparation of arguments and of judicial opinions.

CLUBS.

Associations for mutual improvement, both in the discussion of subjects connected with Law studies and practice in forensic debate, are encouraged. The Halls of the Law Building, warmed and lighted, are free for the use of such Associations.

LIBRARIES.

The Library of the Law School will be furnished with all the important Text Books, Reports, and other Books of reference. The unequalled collection of the Congressional Library is open during six hours of each day to all who wish to examine any authority, or to take notes from any book of reference, ancient or modern.

SPECIAL FACILITIES.

The City of Washington furnishes beyond any other city of the Union special facilities for the Law student as well as for the general scholar. Besides the Local Courts, both Criminal and of Common Pleas, the sessions of the Federal Courts, both the Circuit and Supreme Courts, are invaluable for practical instruction to students. Besides these, the discussions on Patent Law, the deliberations of the Court of Claims, the frequent sessions of Military and Admiralty tribunals, and the debates on Constitutional and International Law in the Halls of Congress, form a combination of facilities, to one desirous of general improvement, such as no other city affords. In addition to these direct aids, the best Lectures on subsidiary topics can be secured from able men in every department of legal science who resort to the Federal Capital.

EXAMINATIONS AND GRADUATION.

All candidates for graduation, besides the daily examinations of the Class Room, are required to pass a general examination at the end of their course on all the studies of the two years in the presence of the Faculty or of such Committee as the Trustees of the College may appoint.

The degree of Bachelor in Laws is granted to students in the Law Department, who having passed either one or both years of the prescribed course in the school, sustain satisfactory examinations in all the studies of both the Junior and Senior Classes. The degrees will be publicly conferred, either at the closing exercise of the session of the Law Department, or at the Annual Commencement of the Academical Department, on the fourth Wednesday in June.

EXPENSES.

The entire charge for Tuition, Lectures, use of Library, and all facilities of the School, is eighty dollars for a single year, or one hundred and fifty dollars for two years. Half year tickets of admission to Recitations and Lectures are issued on the second Wednesdays in October and February on payment of forty dollars in advance. Half year tickets to attendants on Lectures and other exercises of the School, who are not candidates for graduation or subjects of examination, are furnished at twenty dollars, invariably in advance. A charge of six dollars is made for diplomas, and of three dollars for engrossed certificates of attainment. Students from abroad can obtain board at prices as reasonable as in other cities, at expenses graduated to their preference or necessity.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

LOCATION, TIME, AND PLAN.

The new building of this Department, the gift of W. W. Corcoran, is located on H street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth Streets. The Annual Session begins on the third Monday of October, and ends on the 1st of March. The College Museum contains a rare and valuable collection. The regular Lectures are held in the latter portion of the day, affording the morning hours for study of Text Books, reading in Libraries, or practical Clinical instruction, for which ample opportunities are afforded. At the College, Medical and Surgical Clinics are held on Wednesdays and Saturdays. The Military and other General Hospitals furnish additional facilities.

TEXT BOOKS AND WORKS OF REFERENCE.

Anatomy.—Leidy's or Gray's Anatomy; Dalton's Physiology.

Materia Medica.—Wood & Bache's Dispensatory; Wood's or Stille's Therapeutics.

Surgery.—Druitt's or Gross' Surgery; Paget's Surgical Pathology.

Obstetrics.—Ramsbotham's or Churchill's Midwifery; West or Condie on Diseases of Children.

Practice.—Wood's or Watson's Practice.

Chemistry.—Fowne's Chemistry.

GRADUATION.

The requisites for graduating are, that the candidate shall have attended the Lectures of each Professor two full courses, or one full course in this school, and one full course in some other respectable institution. He must have a fair moral character, and have dissected during at least one session. He shall have entered his name with the Dean of the Faculty as a candidate for graduation, and delivered to him an Inaugural Dissertation upon some medical subject thirty days before the close of the session, and passed a satisfactory examination.

All persons who have attended two full courses of Lectures in this school are entitled to attend succeeding courses free of expense. Graduates of other accredited Medical Colleges after three years are required to matriculate only. Prior to the expiration of three years, the fee for a general ticket is $50.

EXPENSES.

Expense of full course of Lectures by all the Professors,	$105 00
Single Tickets,	15 00
Practical Anatomy, by the Demonstrator,	10 00
Matriculating Fee, payable only once,	5 00
Graduating Expenses,	30 00

No charge is made for Clinical Lectures. Payment of the fees is required in all cases, and tickets must be taken out at the commencement of the session. Remission or deduction of fees, and taking promissory notes from students, are forbidden by the By-Laws of the College.

The price of board, and of all other personal expenses, is as reasonable in Washington as in the other large cities of the Union.

FACILITIES OR LOCATION.

The location of the College at the seat of the National Government affords peculiar advantages to the medical student. At no other city in the country can there be found so large an amount of illustration of medical collateral branches of science freely and gratuitously open to the student. These advantages increase in proportion with the advancing importance of the Metropolitan City.

The city of Washington is the centre of the medical organization of the Army of the United States, and it is the point at which the results gathered throughout the country are concentrated and put into a tangible and useful form. The Museum established by the Medical Department of the United States Army is now equal, if not superior, to any similar collection in the world. Its material has been obtained from a greater number of cases, and from a greater variety of climate, than that which has ever yet been brought together in one place in any country.

The Libraries of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution, and the Patent Office, enriched with rare and costly works in all the departments of science and literature, afford opportunities for the profitable employment of hours of leisure from professional study, which are seldom equaled anywhere.
